Please remember Heather Crunchie's family in your prayers. "Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her."

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Next week we will support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

FUN FACTS:

Barack Obama, George Clooney born

I first met Fr. Michael 40 years ago on a Holy Cross Vocation Office discernment retreat at Moreau Seminary at Notre Dame back in February of 1981. He was a Notre Dame student and I was a high school senior. We both entered formation with Holy Cross shortly thereafter, and eventually I followed him to the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, California, in 1986, after I finished my Novitiate Year in Colorado. Little did either of us dream that 30 years after our time together in Berkeley that we would find ourselves reunited in Portland, Oregon, at Holy Redeemer Parish.

Fr. Michael is a bright, humble, wise, prayerful, and zealous priest. He is a heck of a preacher and a gifted harpist. He is also a supportive and thoughtful brother in community. We are so blessed to have him with us here at Holy Redeemer and I am blessed to call him a brother and friend.

I will close with these two bits of wisdom as he turns 60 to help him manage this new stage of life:

You know you are 60 when your back goes out more often than you do.

You know you are 60 when you have a party and the neighbors don't even realize it.

Happy Birthday, Fr. Michael, from a grateful parish community!

Fr. Pat
