Pastor's Message

Dear Friends:

Offensive Graffiti on front doors of HR church

I am sure that by now most of you are aware that our church doors were hit with some offensive graffiti a few weeks ago.

One door displayed a condemnation of colonizers and their gods and another simply stated, "Land Back." Of course, we have no idea who carried out this act. The police, after studying the graffiti, labelled it as a hate crime. Thankfully there was no damage done to the church or to our stained glass windows. We don't have anything like CCTV security cameras, and even if we did, such people are savvy enough to make sure that nothing caught on camera will give away their identity.

While my first reaction was one of anger, part of me wondered about the people who carried this out. Surely they see themselves fighting a just cause against oppressors who need to be exposed. The Church does not enjoy widespread popularity and clearly for them falls under the category of institutions not to be trusted. Deep down, those who spray painted our doors are probably not particularly happy or peaceful people within. I thought of Christ's mandate, however, to bless those who curse you and pray for those who mistreat you. So I invite you to pray with me for those who left these messages on our church doors. Whether they want it or not, divine grace will be headed their way!

One of the unexpected graces of this event was the group of volunteers who came to the church to remove the spray paint. They did a super job and I'm so grateful to them. The parishioner who organized this little clean-up crew, after I thanked her and the rest of the volunteers for their help, sent me the following message: "Happy to help! HR feels like an extension of our home; couldn't stand to see it like that."

Arrival of Cameron Cortens, CSC

Deacon-to-be Cameron Cortens has arrived at Holy Redeemer and is settling in at the rectory. He will be with us for a brief time before he heads back to Notre Dame to prepare for his celebration of Final Vows and Ordination to the Diaconate the weekend of August 28-29. I will be present for that celebration and very much look forward to it. We are blessed to have him with us!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Pat
